Grey House Publishing announces the Ninth Edition of Educators Resource Directory

Grey House Publishing is proud to announce the publication of the Ninth Edition of Educators Resource Directory. Educators Resource Directory is a comprehensive volume providing resources and information for education professionals in a variety of fields.

With over 6,000 entries, organized into 21 chapters, it would take many hours of searching through multiple resources to uncover all the information presented in this one, easy-to-use volume. Listings include associations, publications, trade shows, workshops and training programs designed not only to help educators advance professionally, but also to give them the resources they need to help their students, their schools, and their state win President Obama's Race to the Top. This competitive grant program, under the American Recovery and Reinvestment Act of 2009, is designed to encourage and reward states that 1. create conditions for education innovations and reform, 2. achieve significant improvement in student outcomes, and 3. implement ambitious plans in core education reform areas. Following the introduction is a comprehensive Race to the Top Executive Summary, followed by the winners of the second round of Race to the Top grants.

The directory section of this 2011/12 edition follows the NCLB information, and contains the nearly 6,200 listings included in the book. Section I: Resources, contains chapters 1-13, which cover topics such as:

- Associations & Organizations: divided into 18 categories and including over 100 Canadian educational associations.
- Conferences & Trade Shows: over 200 listings are organized by international, national and regional categories.
- Consultants: offering information on nearly 200 firms
- Financial Resources: gives details on 627 grants, foundations and scholarships can be found
