Grey House Publishing is proud to announce the 58th edition of Subject Guide to Books in Print. This title is the master subject reference to titles, authors, publishers, wholesalers and distributors in the US. Subject Guide to Books in Print provides immediate access to 1.6 million titles arranged by more than 75,000 Library of Congress subject headings, from Hank Aaron to Zen Literature and everything in between Subject Guide to Books in Print gives the library cataloger a master subject reference to titles, authors, publishers, wholesalers, and distributors in the United States. This important reference makes easy work of locating all of the in-print titles within a particular subject area.

This new edition provides immediate access to 1.6 million titles arranged by more than 75,000 Library of Congress subject headings, from Hank Aaron to Zen Literature and everything in between. All editions and bindings are listed, for easy reference. Entries include title, author, editor, translator, volumes, edition, series information, language, grade range, publication year, type of binding, ISBN, imprint and publisher. Two indexes are included: a Publisher Index and Wholesaler & Distributor Index, both with complete contact information.

This important reference makes easy work of locating all of the in print titles within a particular subject area. Whether you're expanding your collection, responding to a patron's request or performing a subject-specific title search, this resource will point you in the right direction, quickly and easily.

Also available are two companion titles to Subject Guide to Books in Print: Books in Print and Books in Print Supplement.

Books in Print Supplement is a mid-year supplement that provides the latest book publishing updates for the past six months. This resource is crucial in ensuring that libraries and bookstores have access to the most accurate information throughout the year.
