

Table of Contents (preliminary)

Publisher's Note

Introduction

Historical Timeline

1. Royal Traditions

Capital Punishment in the Colonies (1607–1670)

2. A Competition of Faith

Beginning of the Anti-Death Penalty Movement (1690s)

3. A Reason for Violence

America and the Ideals of the Enlightenment (1764–1790)

4. Acts of Cruelty

The Origins of Cruel and Unusual Punishment (1641–1790s)

5. The Roots of Abolition

Early Studies and Laws Against the Death Penalty (1792–1820)

6. A Private Affair?

“Jacksonian Reform” and Capital Punishment (1800–1850)

7. Mandating Death

States Struggle with Sentencing (1800s–1840s)

8. The First Reform

The Debate Begins in Earnest (1840s–1852)

9. The Second Reform

The Progressive Movement Takes on Capital Punishment (1900s)

10. Industrial Execution

Invention of the Electric Chair (1880–1890)

11. A Test of Cruelty

The Evolving Definition of Punishment (1878–1910)

12. A Deadly Air

The Gas Chamber Is Introduced (1920s)

13. Execution at War

The Military and Capital Punishment (1775–present)

14. Crimes Against the Nation

Treason, Sedition, and Espionage (1798–1953)

15. Random Acts

The Universal Declaration of Human Rights (1940s–1970s)

16. The Right to Kill

Ongoing Support for the Death Penalty (1950s–1970s)

17. A Commitment to Do No Harm

Physician Involvement and Lethal Injection in Capital Punishment (1970s–2000s)

18. Rational Behavior

Capital Punishment and Insanity (1920s–1980s)

19. Age of Guilt

Juvenile Offenders and the Criminal Justice System (1800s–2000s)

20. Wrongful Execution

The Fallibility of the Legal System (1912–1980s)

21. In the Interest of Survivors

The Victim's Rights Movement (1950s–present)

22. Death and Politics

A Rise in Support for the Death Penalty (1980s–1990s)

23. Extreme Crimes

Assassinations and Terrorist Attacks (1900s–present)

24. The Ability to Understand

The Death Penalty and Mental Capacity (1800s–present)

25. States of Execution

The Abolition Movement in Individual States (2000s)

26. Methods of Execution

Pharmaceutical Companies Become Involved in the Abolition Movement (2010s)

27. The Question of Deterrence

Societal Effects of the Death Penalty (1800s–present)

28. The Future of the Death Penalty

Conclusion
Notes
Primary & Secondary Sources
Glossary
Historical Snapshots
Bibliography
About the Author
Index