Grey House Publishing Announces the Sixth Edition of *Profiles of Michigan

Grey House Publishing is proud to announce the publication of the sixth edition of Profiles of Michigan—History, Statistics, and Demographics for all 2,087 Populated Places in Michigan. This volume provides data on all populated communities and counties in the state of Michigan. This edition also includes profiles of 156 unincorporated places based on US Census Data by zip code, as well as communities that span multiple zip codes.

This new edition of Profiles of Michigan includes all the valuable, in-depth and up-to-date information that these works are known for, but now, this rich content has been reorganized and rearranged, and is fully illustrated with images to support the text and statistics. It is easier to use and more accessible for a variety of users—from high school students to relocation professionals.

This new edition offers a new design, more data, more photos, and a new, thoughtful arrangement that makes the content more accessible and easy-to-use. There are more helpful features, like thumb tabs to help keep you oriented in each chapter—now 11—and chapter leader pages that include a specific Introduction, Table of Contents and, in many cases, a unique User Guide, paving the way for the researcher to take full advantage of every last piece of data presented. Profiles of Michigan includes hundreds of statistical data points, tables and charts that provide solid, fact-based research, and dozens of maps and photos. Here is an overview of the new chapter arrangement:

About Michigan: Facts & Photos: This 4-color chapter provides a real sense of the state from a variety of historical and physical vantage points. It includes Michigan history and geography, plus a photo gallery that includes not only sights unique to the state, but also its state flag, seal, motto, bird, flower, and more. This chapter also includes a timeline of political and newsworthy events from Michigan's founding to the present day.

County and Place Profiles: This chapter is arranged alphabetically by county, then by place—for a total of 2,087 places and 83 counties. These detailed place profiles compile dozens of data points based on the U.S. Census Bureau's American Community Survey and other current government sources such as the Federal Bureau of Investigation, the U.S. Department of Education, and the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency. These unique place profiles pull together statistical and descriptive information on every Census-recognized place in Michigan plus 206 unincorporated communities.

Government: A State Guide: This is an important and detailed look at the history and structure of Michigan's government, including discussion of the state's Constitution and legislative, judicial and executive branches. The chapter ends with a map of Michigan's 14 U.S Congressional Districts.

Demographic Maps: These 11 colorful, full-page maps help to anchor the researcher to the state's diverse population, illustrating population, race and ethnic makeup (white, black, Asian, Hispanic), age, home values, household income, high school graduates, college graduates, and presidential election results.

Geography: This chapter explores Michigan's physical features, natural resources, federal land, and Indian reservations, including a satellite view of the state. In addition to providing a visual sense of the state, this data contributes to a better understanding of settlement patterns, economic development, and state resources that are vital for the state's continued growth.

Energy: This is a detailed look at Michigan's energy needs, uses and available resources—including petroleum, natural gas, coal, electricity, and renewable energy.

Comparative Statistics: This chapter makes it easy to compare statistics for Michigan's 100 largest communities by dozens of data points, including density of people per square mile, land area, population size, ethnic percentages, household size, education level and much more. This is a treasure trove of data for grant writers, government researchers and demographers. The chapter Top/Bottom Rankings of Michigan Places with Population over 2,500 includes rankings for dozens of categories, for both the top 150 and bottom 150 communities with population over 2,500.

Education, This chapter begins with an Educational State Profile that summarizes number of schools, students, diplomas granted and educational dollars spent. Also included are School District Rankings for 16 topics from Teacher/Student Ratios to High School Drop-Out Rates. Following these rankings are statewide assessment results from the National Assessment of Educational Progress (NAEP) and performance data from Michigan's accountability system.

Ancestry and Ethnicity, this section provides a detailed look at the ancestral, Hispanic and racial makeup of Michigan's 200+ ethnic categories. Profiles are included for the state, for all counties with 100,000 or more residents, and for all places with 50,000 or more residents. In the ranking section, data is displayed three ways: 1) by number, based on all places regardless of population; 2) by percent, based on all places regardless of population; 3) by percent, based on places with populations of 50,000 or more.

Climate, this section includes a State Summary, three colorful maps and profiles of both National and Cooperative Weather Stations. In addition, there are Weather Station Rankings with hundreds of interesting details, such as Donner Memorial State Park reporting the highest annual snowfall with 185.4 inches.
