User's Guide

Listings in Hudson's Washington News Media Contacts Guide fall into several major media categories:

- News Services
- Newspapers
- Syndicates & Columnists
- Radio & TV Stations
- Magazines & Periodicals

The Table of Contents is your detailed guide through these major categories and their subdivisions.

In the case of major media—Newspapers, Radio & TV Stations, and Magazines & Periodicals—the listings are organized by type of news—general and specialized, as well as by their connection to D.C.—those with a D.C. Bureau and those headquartered in the D.C. metro area.

This 2026 edition includes three indexes to help you to find exactly what you are looking for:

- Entry Name Index is an alphabetical listing of all media organizations, including newspapers, television, magazines, radio, and more.
- Personnel Index is an alphabetical listing of all media contacts, including publishers, editors, bureau chiefs, correspondents, reporters, photographers, and more.
- Magazine Subject Index lists all magazines by their topic, from Advertising & Public Relations to Urban Affairs.
