Food & Beverage Market Place

"The Food & Beverage Market Place, is now in its 19th edition, is available online at <http://gold.greyhouse.com> or in three print volumes. The directory provides comprehensive coverage of approximately 34,000 companies related to the food and beverage industries. Included in the 34,000 listings are hundreds of new company profiles and thousands of updates. The first volume covers food and beverage manufacturers and contains four indexes: "Brand Name Index," "Ethnic Food Index," "Geographic Index," and "Parent Company Index." These indexes are especially helpful in a volume this size (more than 1,350 pages). Equipment, supplies, and service providers comprise volume two, along with two indexes, "Brand Name Index" and "Geographic Index." In volume three, users will find brokers, importer/exporters, transportation firms, warehouse companies, and wholesalers/distributors as well as eleven indexes, including "Import Region" and "Wholesale Product Type." The set provides users with basic contact information (address, phone number, website). Depending on the company, users may find information about type of product, the names of executives, sales numbers, number of employees, year founded, parent company, or export region. Recommended for large public or academic libraries."
