History: Named for Plymouth in Devonshire, England, from which the Mayflower sailed for America. Plymouth was settled and incorporated in 1620 when the "Mayflower," bound for Virginia, was blown far north of her course and landed on Cape Cod. It anchored in what today is Provincetown Harbor, and finding that terrain unfriendly, about a month later the Pilgrims set sail for the mainland. They landed on an island in Plymouth Harbor. At the end of a century after the landing, Plymouth had a population of two thousand, comfortably supported by agriculture, navigation, and commerce.

Regional Rankings

This section ranks incorporated places and CDPs (Census Designated Places) with populations of 10,000 or more. Unincorporated postal areas were not considered. For each topic below, you will find two tables, one in Descending Order—highest to lowest, and one in Ascending Order—lowest to highest. Four topics are exceptions to this rule, and only include Descending Order—Water Area, Ancestry (five tables), Native Hawaiian/Other Pacific Islander, and Commute to Work: Public Transportation. This is because there are an extraordinarily large number of places that place at the bottom of these topics with zero numbers.
